

MSC L.T. JORDAN INSTITUTE FOR INTERNATIONAL AWARENESS
GREECE LEADERSHIP PROGRAM
2009-2010

PURPOSE

The Greece Leadership Program is an interdisciplinary international program that will send ten Texas A&M sophomore business and engineering students to the country of Greece to enhance their leadership talents and skills. The program provides students an opportunity to experience Greece's contemporary and historical culture, gain valuable friendships, develop communication skills, gain confidence and be further encouraged to study, research or intern abroad.

THE PROGRAM

The MSC L.T. Jordan Institute shall arrange for and partially fund the following:

1. Cross-cultural orientation to customs, society, and government of Greece during the spring semester of each year, prior to participants' departure.
2. Living accommodations and one meal a day for 14 days.
3. Ground transportation to and from all scheduled locations.
4. A Texas A&M University staff and/or faculty member throughout the trip.
5. Group activities and leadership seminars upon arrival in the country.
6. Air transportation to and from Greece.

This program is concurrent with the first TAMU summer school session. The program is sixteen days long, departing on May 17, 2010 and arriving in the U.S. on May 31, 2010. The return date will provide the student with ample time to attend both summer session classes.

ELIGIBILITY

1. Currently enrolled Texas A&M University students of sophomore classification who are citizens/residents of the U.S. with a GPR of at least 2.5. (Students should be entering their Junior year upon returning to the United States.)
2. Preference will be given to students with little or no international travel or living abroad experience but with a demonstrated interest in international affairs.
3. Students applying for the MSC L.T. Jordan Institute Greece Leadership Program must be returning to Texas A&M University for the fall semester.
4. A valid and current passport is required of all students prior to departure.
5. Students must have a demonstrated ability to function effectively in a cross-cultural environment and to uphold the image of TAMU as a world-class university.
6. Upon selection as a participant, the student must complete a contract and release form which includes all rules, regulations and requirements.
7. Students must participate in the orientation meetings and activities set up by the MSC L. T. Jordan Institute.

PROCESS

1. Applications are due by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, November 9, 2009 in the L.T. Jordan Institute Office:

L.T. Jordan Institute Office,
Room 2330 on the 2nd floor of John J. Koldus Building
(Across the street from Rudder Tower)

One reference form from a professor in your field of study or someone who knows your academic performance is required as well as the names and phone numbers of two other individuals who may be contacted if needed. PLEASE BE SURE TO TURN IN FOUR COPIES OF YOUR APPLICATION.

2. For further information about the Leadership Program, please come by the Jordan Institute office, call 845-8770, or e-mail ji-chair@msc.tamu.edu. There will also be informational meetings about this program.
3. Applicants will be screened by the Greece Leadership Program Selection Committee to narrow the number of candidates for the interview process. Applicants will be interviewed by the following officials of the MSC L.T. Jordan Institute for International Awareness:
 - A. Jordan Institute staff director
 - B. Jordan Institute student chairman
 - C. Student director of the Greece Leadership Program
 - D. Other individuals as deemed appropriate by the student committee
4. Applicants shall be notified of the interview outcome by mail within five working days of the final interview.

FUNDING/FINANCING

Partial funding for the program is derived from proceeds of the Leland T. and Jessie W. Jordan Endowment for the MSC L.T. Jordan Institute for International Awareness. This funding includes the above stated items but does not cover the total cost of the program.

Therefore, students will be responsible for paying $3,200. Other incidental expenses may include, but are not limited to, all personal needs; any required travel documents and/or preventative medical care needed prior to departure; photographic equipment, film and processing; other food and snacks as desired; and pleasure travel not scheduled in the group trip.

Students may apply for an interest-free loan of up to $1000 from the MSC Overseas Loan Program. Interviews for these loans are scheduled on a monthly basis.

REQUIREMENTS

Participants must attend scheduled meetings during the spring semester. Participants may be dropped from the program if they do not have 80% attendance of the meetings. If participants withdraw from the program after airline tickets have been purchased, the price of the ticket may not be refunded.
